WATERED BEER, HE QUIT HER.

Chicago, July 8 .- "If there is any man who can live with that woman you can hang me, judge," said John Hoffman to Judge Torrison, in the Court of Domestic Relations. "She made me sleep in the barn with the horses. When I tried to have a sociable game of cards in the backyard she would sneak up behind and sonk us with the garden hose. And-" here John's voice broke, "when we got back she had poured water in all the cans and the beer was spoiled."

Here the narrator broke down, and the Street court was oblined to recess to enable him to recover his poise. Mrs. Hoffman charged that Hoffman had deserted her Mrs. Hoffman

HAGERSTOWN HAS NO CASH Commissioner Weary of Reing "Angel." Hagerstown, Md., July 9.-Sixty-two street improvement employees are the latest victims of Hagerstown's financial tie-up, brought about by the wrangle over appointments, and the consequent fallure to name a tax collector.

For several weeks one of the street commissioners, Jacob Roessner, has been advancing money to pay off the street hands and he has so advanced $1,638, but he decided to let the last payroll of $600.74 go without " an angel." and in consequence the street workers were issued warrants, which the former tax

Unveil Statue to Carnegie at Birthplace

The Andrew Carnegie celebration at Dunfermline, Scotland, the birthplace of the muiti-millionaire steel magnate, on June 27, was the occasion of a public holiday in that city. The actual ceremony of unveiling the status of the philanthropist occupied several hours. The Town Council, the City Council, the School Board and other public bodies assembled at the municipal buildings and marched in a parade to Pimtencrief Park where the monument was unveiled by Mrs. Hugband, wife of the provest. Besides the customary oratory there was a musical tribute to Mr. Carnegie, written by David Stephen, the musical director of the Carnegie Dunfermline Trust. Mr. Stephen, himself, selected the words to which he set the music from Apochryphal Book of Rowlesissations.
